Executive Leadership Tour - Singapore

14th - 18th December 2015

Why should Senior executives come to Singapore for their study tour?

Singapore is an attractive and green city-state with large-scale, integrated and urban infrastructure systems.

- The Singaporean model for socio-economic development is exemplary for both developmental economists focused on quick turnarounds as well as developed nations.
- The purpose of this "Executive Leadership Tour" is to showcase "Singapore" as an example of success and how leadership is responsible for this achievement. It will also include entertainment time in Singapore (some sight-seeing) – to experience the comfort of living and being part of Singapore's day-to-day life.
